It was also reported that a small howitzer had been planted at the head of the stairs to sweep the hall if Quinn and his friends broke into the place.

This morning Quinn went to the Essex Market Police Court and asked Justice Ford for warrants authorizing the arrest of James J. Fitzgerald, Philip J. McGrath, G. W. Dunn and an unknown man described as John Doe.

GRANT OR HEWITT, WHICH?

Hot Fight Over This Question at the Young Men's Democratic Club To-Night.

A highly interesting and even exciting time is expected at the meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club, which is to take place at the Hoffman House this evening. Tammany Hall men and County Democrats will be present in great force and will lock horns on the important question as to whether Hugh J. Grant or Abram S. Hewitt shall be indorsed by the Club for Mayor. The contest will rage over the adoption of one or other of two important resolutions which have been introduced: The first reads :

Whereas, This Club, in the year 1886, indorsed, approved and enthusiastically supported the nomination of Hon. Abram & Hewitt for Mayor of this city,

Resolved. That this Club now indorses his renom-mation and piedges its earnest efforts to aid in his
